Press Release Dated 09.06.2020

In continuation of the Bar Council of India's earlier communication dated 27th May, 2020 (bearing letter No.BCI:D:1401/2020) relating to Guidelines for online Examinations, it is hereby further notified that all the Centres of Legal Education (CLE) shall follow the under-mentioned guidelines:-

1. Final year students of 3 Years LL.B and 5 Years LL.B courses may be allowed to appear for online examinations.
2. Alternatively, for Final year LL.B students as mentioned above, the Universities may adopt any other appropriate method which they feel is adequate to satisfy the requirements of regular examination. Under this system the University may allow students to write a project report/research paper for each paper of final year or they may adopt a full proof method to double the internal marks of the semester exams already held for such year.
3. In case of Final Year LL.B students, who have not cleared all papers of previous years and are required to sit in the supplementary examination, but, who have been promoted to final year, such Final year LL.B students may be allowed to write a project report or appear in online examination with regard to the pending/supplementary papers, so that they could also pass within time.
4. All Students, except Final year students, will be promoted on the basis of performance of previous year's marks and marks obtained in the internal examination of the current year. However, it is clarified that after reopening of the colleges/Universities, the Universities shall conduct the end semester examination with respect to the year from which they have been promoted, within a reasonable period of time, though, such promoted students shall continue to study in the year to which they have been promoted, and in case, they are unable to pass/clear any such paper of such end semester exam of the year from which they have been promoted, they shall have to clear the same, before they are granted the degree. In the case of students who have been promoted to the final year as LL.B students, they shall have to pass all papers in order to obtain their degree/s
5. Universities must adhere to Covid-19 protocol and ensure that the norm of social distancing is followed in the campus and all class rooms and examination halls are properly sanitized from time to time. The safety and health of the students should not be compromised at any cost.
6. Universities are instructed to maintain the highest academic standards while conducting the examinations.

Sub.: Guidelines issued by the Bar Council of India with regard to the online Examinations in the light of detailed guidelines for conducting examinations issued by the University Grants Commission on 27.04.2020.

Sir,

The General Council of the Bar Council of India in its meeting held on 24.05.2020 has resolved to pass the following resolution and guidelines, in the light of detailed guidelines issued by the University Grants Commission on 27.04.2020:-

1. Final year students of 3 years and 5 years courses may be allowed to appear in online examinations. However, the Universities must adopt an alternative strategy for conducting examinations for those students who are unable to avail the online examinations for any reasons.
2. Intermediate Semester students: will be promoted on the basis of performance of previous years and marks obtained in internal examination of the current year. The Universities are directed to conduct the end semester examination within a month of reopening of the colleges.
3. The Universities must adhere to Covid-19 protocol and ensure that the norms of social distancing is adhered to in the campus and all class rooms and examination halls are sanitized time to time. The safety and health of the students should not be compromised at any cost.
4. The Universities are instructed to maintain the highest academic standards and integrity in conducting the examinations.

This is for your information and necessary action.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

(Srimanto Sen)
